

Eureka Welcomes Bonanza Steak & BBQ

I think Eureka likes their new Bonanza. After opening on Monday November 9th for what they called their “soft opening,” on Thursday when they had the ribbon cutting, local diners arrived in droves. Over the weekend, you could hardly get on the parking lot.

The Bonanza Steak & BBQ is a new era for the iconic restaurant chain. According to Homestyle Dining LLC President and CEO Tom Sacco, this is “a new breed of casual steakhouse that offers quality, flavor and ambiance at a value not found elsewhere.”

CEO Tom Sacco is a high energy, exuberant guy. He can quickly make friends with you, make a joke, all the while inspecting your food to make sure it meets his high standards. He is passionate about his restaurants.

On Thursday November 12th, the Eureka Chamber of Commerce held a ribbon cutting, and then were treated to lunch. For the grand opening, Bonanza did a promotion to benefit the Eureka Food Pantry. If patrons made a $5 donation to the food pantry, they received a $10 bonus card.

The new Bonanza offers a friendly, relaxing dining experience. You are greeted promptly upon entrance by a smiling face. You are offered quick service at your table and your drinks arrive quickly. Your salad is prepared at your direction from a huge selection of fresh vegetables. The name “Steak & BBQ” features a menu prepared with on-site smokers that add smoky rich flavor to steaks, ribs, brisket and chicken.

The chamber members in attendance all enjoyed their meal. They were treated to samples of the Tower of O’s onion rings, BBQ Brisket Nachos and Brown Sugar Candied Bacon.

Make sure you try the new Bonanza Steak & BBQ soon. You won’t be disappointed. They are located at 80 Hilltop Village Center on Fifth Street in Eureka.

They can be reached at 636-549-9151. Visit their website at www.bonanzasteakandbbq.com to view their entire menu.
